

Northwest Chamber Chorus

MARK KLOEPPER, MUSIC DIRECTOR

2011-2012 SEASON

A ROSE IN WINTER

In Praise of Mary and the Christmas Season TWO WEEKENDS!

SUNDAY, DEC. 4, 2011 3:00 PM Plymouth Congregational Church, downtown Seattle

SATURDAY, DEC. 10, 2011 7:30 PM Phinney Ridge Lutheran Church, Seattle

Music in praise of Mary includes Arvo Pärt's radiant Magnificat, and Benjamin Britten's evocative Rosa Mystica, as well as motets by Guillaume Dufay, Josquin des Prez, Maurice Duruflé and Morten Lauridsen. We'll also celebrate the spirit of the season with music of John Tavener, Eric Whitacre, Johannes Brahms, and Moses Hogan.

AMERICANA

Folksongs, Hymns and Spirituals TWO WEEKENDS!

SUNDAY, MARCH 18, 2012 3:00 PM Green Lake United Methodist Church, Seattle

SATURDAY, MARCH 24, 2012 7:30 PM Phinney Ridge Lutheran Church, Seattle

Three centuries of heartfelt folk songs, spirituals and hymns are highlighted in this program—one that has been on the wish list for years. This sublime, subtle and familiar American music could fill an entire season. For this concert, we will focus on some of the most beloved composers and arrangers, including Steven Foster, F. Melius Christiansen, Carol Barnett, Gwyneth Walker, William Dawson, Alice Parker and Aaron Copland.

THE ELEMENTS

Earth, Air, Fire and Water

SATURDAY, JUNE 9, 2012 7:30 PM Phinney Ridge Lutheran Church, Seattle

SUNDAY, JUNE 10 2012 3:00 PM Phinney Ridge Lutheran Church, Seattle

Earth, air, fire and water are the classical elements of our physical world. Philosophers, theologians and artists have long been inspired by these physical elements, as they give voice to elements of the senses and the spirit. To conclude the concert season, we go to our musical laboratory, and merge these elements that have been so masterfully distilled and conveyed by choral artists over the centuries. Featured composers include Palestrina, Monteverdi, Thomas Morley, Morten Lauridsen, William Dawson and Alberto Grau. We will sing music from Australia, Great Britain, Venezuela, Italy, America, Japan, and Oz.

BON VOYAGE CONCERT

TUESDAY, JULY 3, 2012 7:30 PM Phinney Ridge Lutheran Church, Seattle

Enjoy favorites from the 2011-2012 concert season that we'll sing on our tour to Slovakia and Hungary in July 2012. Free concert, donations welcome.
